

Contest Marks Celebration

Residents and students as a part of the Dansville Bicentennial community, recognizing the 200th anniversary of the Constitution, will be eligible and are invited to participate in a contest with winners participating in a Ratification Day Program scheduled for June 16.

Quentin Masolotte, local Bicentennial chairman, reported details of local participation in the competition are being developed and will be announced later.

The program is an activity of the New York State Bicentennial Commission. Its theme of "Critical Choices for New York" focuses on today's Constitutional issues in areas such as: freedom of expression, separation of church and state, rights of the accused, the right of privacy, federalism, local home rule, separation of powers, and the role of courts.

Masolotte said that Dansville area residents and students will be encouraged to express their opinions on these issues in a written contest during February and March and in regional town meetings across the state on June 16, 1988, to commemorate the convening of the state ratifying convention on June 17, 1788.

Justices Levy Fines in Court

Fines totaling $300 were levied on six persons during recent sessions of court before village justices, John J. Weidman and Ralph Domescek.

Pleading guilty to charges before Weidman were Robert Macomber, 18, of 2 Van Campen St., Dansville, defacing bridge, $50 and $10 surcharge; and Timothy Barrett, 22, of 76 Chestnut Ave., Dansville, flashing stop light, $75, $10 surcharge.

Disposition of cases before Domescek included:

Steve E. Young, 17, of 21 Jefferson St., Dansville, open container, $50; Francesco Primerano, 27, of Rochester, failing to obey a traffic control device, $50, $10 surcharge; Matthew Meyer, 16, Reeds Corners Road, Dansville, insufficient lights, $50, $10 surcharge; and Tracy L. level six A-minus and Christina Dixon (clarinet) received a level six B. Obtaining a level five A were vocalists Cheryl Derrenbacher, Judy Kim, David Glover and Amy Ingalls and flutists Kellie Kreiley and Alisha McCullough; a level five A-minus, Caleb Shera (trumpet) and vocalists Lester LaBell and Laura LaBell; a level five B, Kerry Dempsey (xylophone), Krista Yaeger (clarinet), Bridget Lawler (clarinet) and Todd Emo (alto saxophone); a level five B-minus was earned by Karen Chase (baritone saxophone) and Steve Lander (snare drum); Kelly Dempsey (clarinet) got a level five C-plus; Julie Pitcher (flute) a level four excellent; and Lester LaBell (baritone saxophone) a level four A-minus. Sixth grade vocalist Natalie Petti earned a level three outstanding.

While performing for a rating, most of the students were likewise auditioning for the All-County Band, Orchestra and/or Chorus. The results of these auditions will be announced at a later date.

In a letter to Masolotte, Stephen E. Schechter, executive director of the state Commission on the Bicentennial of the U. S. Constitution, reported winners of the contest will become citizen delegates attending a statewide convention in Poughkeepsie on July 25 and 26.

He said each region of the state will send a delegate to Poughkeepsie, composed of senior division and junior division contest winners, and regional leaders selected by a regional committee composed of representatives from bicentennial communities and others.

A final report of the convention, Schechter wrote, will be presented to the governor, the state commission, the state legislative leaders, and the U. S. presidential candidates on Citizenship Day.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

— Psalm 119

The Word of God... how fortunate we are to have an account of God's relationship with His people, to read about and meditate upon. Our Father's commandments are contained within this account for us to read and to follow, as a child would follow a loving parent's admonitions. Reading the inspired Word of God can be a great source of comfort and enlightenment; we invite you to hear the Good News of the Lord proclaimed in the church of your choice this coming Sunday.
